Chatelaine:

- We had one of our newbies show up to SS & MM. She had a great time! Likely to stay and play. We had two new people also show up at that event. Alison and I were able to speak to them. That's about it. I think we have enough for a new comers night. I will chat with the incoming chatelaine about this.

Demo-Coordinator:

- As of right now, not sure we can make the Demo for the Phoenixville school happen. I have only a two people as "should be able to be there" I will be trying to confirm things this weekend and letting Diana (the Demo school lady) know what we might have for her.
- Hopefully a Demo will be happening at the Colonial plantation next spring. I will be going there this weekend to get a more private tour and get some info about what possible and not possible there.

Knights Marshal:

- Still having practices on Wednesday. I had to cancel last night due to low attendance. Supposedly we are supposed to have some new people show up at some point in the future. I have gone over the loaner gear and it's in good shape. One of the shields needs its edge redone. At some point I need to sit down with Sorcha and help her build some armor.

Archery Marshal:

- Tuesday practices are winding down at the Limerick site and will end soon. Naomi is hoping to have some Sunday winter practices at the King of Prussia site, and practices will resume there in the spring. Combat Archery continues in Bhakail for those who have an interest.
- The Limerick Bowman Club will wind down and not be used anymore for archery due to some issues between our groups.

- Nova Schola: Proposed by Kep as the autocrat. Proposal was not available at meeting however Kep will post it on the HHD list for our comment and feedback. In addition, we will give a go no go ASAP so that he can put the information in all the necessary places by next Friday Nov. 13th.
- St. Sebastian's Faire: Naomi proposed as the autocrat. Shire was a go ahead for her to finish up the proposal and submit to the group at next months meeting. She will have the proposal in the Dec. meeting. The original site is out due to some issues. In addition, the name may change.
- Commons/cooking event: Diana proposed a more local event that includes cooking up dishes from a period cook book she has and anyone who would be interested could come and enjoy a day of cooking/entertainment/camaraderie. This was a great suggestion and she will send out a note to the list to gather interest.
- Demo in spring: Brendan (Maghnus) has been talking with someone from a local Plantation about holding a demo there. The thoughts are a little vague right now but he will continue conversations about this and get back with the shire.
