Officers Reports:

Seneschal:

- Since I am new to the office of seneschal I hope everyone will bear with me if I made any mistakes. Please feel free to contact me about anything. Over the next few month, I am planning on attending various shire activities, as well as our neighbors' meetings. In an attempt to help people in the shire get to know me and the other officers, I am asking that all officers write a short introduction/biography for our shire newsletter. I would like to see many other shire members also write something up for a "who's who section" in the newsletter. I am curious if the shire members would be interested in having a "who's who" section on the website as well.

Chatelaine:

- I only had one newcomer contact and that was Vicki and Dave at Yule. I think that they went to the Commons and I have invited them to the garb workshop this weekend. I have also been promoting Nova Schola to all the newcomers for the past couple of months.

Chronicler:

Demo-Co Ordinator:

- Not much to report, no requests for demos, hopefully will pick back up in the warmer months.

Exchequer:

- 1. Warranting still in progress
- 2. Waiting for receipts for Dave to finish up SS&MM
- 3. Account Status: Money Market $4,505.09; Checking $1,585.41 and Savings $5.00 for total of $6,095.50.

MOaS:

- Dance Practice resumes on Friday Jan 8th after 2 weeks of break for the holidays.
- There is an informal garb and sewing workshop scheduled for Sat. Jan 9 from 1-6 in Jeffersonville.
- Diana, Sam, and others had discussions at Shire commons about monthly cooking / re-creating period recipe activities, in preparation for themed events such as Dining with Lorenzo. The vision was to teach how to re-create a period receipt to anyone interested, particularly novices in the kitchen. No schedule was set, but one should come soon, dependent on the site, which is St. John's in Blue Bell.
- I have not heard about newcomer meetings, guild meetings, or other planned meetings in January.
- Future activities that people should be thinking about:
Mar 13 Nova Scola - Shire members should be thinking about what they want to teach and preparing the class.

March 6 - East Kingdom Arts & Sciences Champion Competition in Carolingia

- I would like to have a "Scola prep" time in Feb. for those who would like to go through their class with an audience and have positive feedback. If anyone knows of a site and a good time to do this, let me know.

Knight Marshal:

Archery Marshal:

- Archery is currently on hold, due to no practice space. Search for a new space continues.

Fencing Marshal:

- We were on hiatus for most of December. The practice money (minus $10 or so for change in the bag) that I had has been mailed to Diana, along with the practice dates. As the church will need to complete its 2009 books soon, they should be paid fairly quickly for those dates. The office has been turned over to Meryke, as has the fencing@hartshorn-dale.org email address.

Thrown Weapons Marshal:

MOL:

Herald:

- There has been no activity. If anyone would like to learn more about heraldry and would like to help out, I still need a deputy. I would like to turn over the Shire herald position as well, but so far, no takers. Secondly, we will have consultation tables at K&Q Bardic, Noisemaker's Schola, and Nova Schola (among other events). If anyone would like to sit down and come up with ideas, come on out. (If you've already contacted me re: a consultation, I'm still handling those and will finish them now that the Pennsic submissions are more-or-less done.)

Dance:

- Dance continues to be well attended. We will hold four practices in January including a fifth Friday Birthday Ball on January 29th.

Chamberlain:

- I still have a lot of cataloging to do, especially at Saby's house. If anyone wants to help let me know. Most of the archery targets and supplies from St Sebastian's Faire are now at my house.

Accessibility Porter:

Chirurgion:

Domesday Editor:

- I have a good list of people who want to receive a copy of the Domesday now, look for the 1st Quarter edition in the next few weeks.

Web Minister:

Secretarie:

- I have a conflicting event the 1st Thursday of every month. However I will be sharing my time between SCA Seretarie duties and this other meeting. To mitigate this and to make sure Naomi has notes to go on please submit all officer reports, new business, event updates and any other details you will be bringing to the meeting so that I can have them already in format and sent to the Seneschal. I request those notes by 3pm the day of the meeting. Please send them to me at sansobel@yahoo.com. Thanks all.
